Subject: Immigration Rights March Tomorrow (Tuesday August 30th)

Attachments: Wait no More map.docx

Good Evening,
Sorry for the late notice on this, however there will be an Immigration Rights March tomorrow (Tuesday) in the Northern section of Downtown, from the Federal Building at the 101 Fwy and Los Angeles, to the Bonaventure Hotel at 5th and Flower Street.

The group will assemble on Aliso Street between Alameda and Los Angeles Street at 10 AM.
At approximately 11:30, they will begin marching southbound on Los Angeles, to Temple.
Then Westbound Temple to Main street, the group will stop on Main in front of City Hall East and hold a short program (approximately five to ten minutes) then continue to First street.
On First street west to Spring St and then southbound on Spring to 5th street, westbound on 5th street where they will end and disband between Flower and Figueroa. Approx 2 PM (See Map)

There is no plan for Civil Disobedience or arrests. LAPD and DOT will close streets as they approach and re-open as they pass.

Please plan for this traffic issue between 11:30 and 2 PM.

Thank you,

Sgt Terry Keenan
